

Do you want to help with empirical research looking into inter-connection between shadow banking and illicit financial flows?
Come to the Slovak Academy of Sciences!

The Institute of Economic Research of the Slovak Academy of Sciences is looking to hire a young research assistant, with skills in data processing and the willingness to learn. The job is ideal for master students in economics, social sciences or mathematics and quantitative methods.

The Institute of Economic Research of the Slovak Academy of Sciences is one of the most well-esteemed economic research institutes in Slovakia. It shelters an exhaustive list of prominent researchers. Thus, offering a favourable environment stimulating professional growth of young researchers, as well as an intensive engagement in applied research projects in the fields of economic policy and data analysis.

Job description:

This is a time-limited assistance related to the creation of a database identifying commercial banks in Europe rumoured or proved to be entangled into some form of illicit financial flows. At the same time, research assistant will be asked to process and analyze in more detail key information from the illicit financial flows-related literature as well as help with updating database on financial crises. The work is part of the project funded by the APVV-20-0499 'Follow the Money - Deciphering the Link between Shadow Banking Sector and the Illicit Financial Flows'.

Remuneration:

Contract of services in total of 1200 EUR (gross).

Duration:

Expected start – July 2022, expected ending – October 2022. Total = 240 working hours.

Place:

Online & offline (Bratislava), upon agreement.

If you are interested in the position, please, send a CV and a short motivation, until the 15/6/2022 to: maria.siranova@savba.sk

Any clarification questions should be addressed to the same email address.